Pike Township Trustee Annette M. Johnson

DID YOU KNOW...

Pike Township is named after Zebulon Pike (1779-1813), American brigadier general and explorer for whom Pikes Peak in Colorado is also named. He was killed in the Battle of York during the War of 1812.

Pike Township is in the northwest corner of Marion County, Indiana, and it covers a large area of about 42 square miles. This stable community has a diverse and active population, with many different neighborhoods, appealing local places, and a lot of business investments.
